B2B Email Broadcast - up to 5,000 for £199

Wish to contact business customers by email - but don't have the systems or people to do it?

Send will take your HTML template and email it to up to 5,000 business customers and provide reports and response metrics for just £199 + VAT. Additional emails will be charged at 1p each.

No Template?

Send will take your logo, picture and text and create a professional HTML template for just £150 + VAT.

Find missing Emails from 99p per hit

Need to add emails to your existing business customer data?

Send will match your business customer mailing list to our various databases containing up to 45 Million corporate email records and append any matches.

Where matches are not available Send can then provide a low cost outbound telephone service, to call your customers on your behalf, asking for email addresses and appending the missing data.

Send us 100 sample records and we will provide a no obligation quotation.

New Email Prospects from 9p each

Want to contact new prospects customers using email - but don't know where to find them?

Send has collated email data from some of the UK's leading B2B email data providers. For a count and quote - just tell us what type of businesses you want to contact and which search areas to use, and we will provide a no obligation quotation.
